Vice President Dan Quayle boosted the gubernatorial campaign of Sen. Pete Wilson (R-Calif.) with a visit to a fund-raiser in Long Beach. The vice president's wife, Marilyn, took part, along with Ron Cedillos, an official of the aerospace firm where the event was held. Quayle also met with the 1989 U.S. Academic Decathlon championship team from Taft High School at a Beverly Hills restaurant. He will address a Western Governors' Assn. meeting today.
